

What do you say to cheer on your teammates?

"I just encourage them to do their best and to do their job and get them as hyped up as possible, to get energy flowing in them." Aaron Ellingson, sophomore

"Simply, good game, have aggression, stay low, fire off the ball, pay attention' and tell them to have fun." Charles Evans, junior

"I listen to ACDC to pump up myself and my teammates. I also scream and yell 'Let's go!'" Karl Ordorff, senior Senior captain Karon Adams attacks the Holy Angels quarterback at the knees, halting his drive. Adams contributed in many important defensive plays.

It's [OUR] Time

The offensive linemen held their blocks, giving their receiver time to sprint down the field to the end zone for a touchdown.

Starting the season off with a 40-0 win against Bloomington Kennedy, the St. Louis Park football team lead their first winning season in 42 years. "It felt great that we are being a part of history, making history and that we are doing things right this year. I am thankful that I was part of it my last year," senior Peyton Morrison said.

In the game against Irondale, during the fourth quarter with less than two minutes left in the game, the team was able to come back with a 16-13 win. "Everyone did their part by staying on their blocks and making sure that they had the right opening in the right areas in order for our receiver to get the ball," junior Nicholas Medina said. With high hopes that the younger players would continue the path they opened, the players became determined to play hard and win.

Using both physical and mental strength, the players won their sections game against Robbinsdale Cooper with a final score of 13-12. Representing our school, the Orioles moved forward to be the first team ever to take on state. "It was amazing, it's was like exploring a new territory for us because it's something St. Louis Park has never done," junior Jacob Olson said.

The Orioles came together and saw all their hard work pay off. "I felt like this group was special because our flock had flown further than any flock before us, so it's flock for life," junior Aaron Sledge said.
